

REPUBLICAN BOLT FAVORS COCKRELL

Niedringhaus Forces May Join the Democrats.

BITTER TOWARD MR. KERENS

Today's Vote in Joint Session of the Legislature Is Awaited With Serious Anxiety.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 19.— The bolt in the ranks of the Republican party in the Legislature threatens to defeat the election of the caucus nominee for United States Senator, Thomas K. Niedringhaus.

The result of yesterday's vote on joint ballot was:

First ballot—Niedringhaus, 87; Cockrell, 83; Kerens, 6.

Second ballot—Niedringhaus, 88; Cockrell, 83; Kerens, 7; Pettigrew, 1.

The scenes in the joint session were wild as the votes of the bolters were recorded for Kerens. The Niedringhaus leaders were up in the air. The justification advanced by the bolters was that they were absolved from the action of the caucus when they recorded their votes for Niedringhaus.

Representative Grace, of St. Louis, a Kerens man, who presented the resolution calling for an investigation as to where the Republican campaign funds came from, seconded the nomination of Niedringhaus, but voted for Kerens.

Trade With Democrats.

The failure to elect Niedringhaus is said to be the result of an agreement reached by the Kerens Republicans and the Democratic leaders whereby the latter agree to support any one named for Senator by the Republicans provided the Democrats get the speakership. The house Democrats are dissatisfied with Speaker Hill.

The Republicans held a conference to see what could be done toward saving "the mysterious stranger" from annihilation. Of the eight "Filipinos" only one attended the conference, Bittinger, of St. Joseph, who said that he did not know how long he would remain with the Niedringhaus men, as two more Republicans said that they would vote for Kerens at today's joint session. It looks very much as though Niedringhaus would fail, but none can be found sanguine enough to assert that the division in the party will benefit Kerens.

May Be Cockrell.

On the contrary, many Republicans were heard to express the belief that if not Niedringhaus it would surely be Cockrell. Several Democrats hostile to Governor Folk have made overtures to Republicans to elect the governor Senator. Folk will not listen to this, as his election would mean a Republican governor for Missouri.

The following was circulated around hotels, purporting to be a telegram from Congressman Bartholdt to Mr. Nied-ringhaus:

"If you are defeated throw your strength to Cockrell; that will be but justice."

Niedringhaus vigorously denied that any such telegram had been received from Bartholdt, but it did its work and enhanced the bitterness existing between the factions.

Bartholdt's Telegram.

After the joint session had adjourned the following telegram was received by Mr. Niedringhaus from Mr. Bartholdt:

"Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.
"Hon. Thomas K. Niedringhaus, Jefferson City, Mo.:
"You have stood the ordeal nobly and fairly won the prize. The party is prouder of you than ever. Hearty congratulations."
"RICHARD BARTHOLDT."

R. C. Kerens came up to the capitol in response to a summons over the long distance telephone and is directing his supporters. He says he is confident of election. Every effort has been made to induce him to withdraw his opposition, but he stands firm, saying he has been treated unfairly by Niedringhaus and his friends.

Passage of Bill to Honor the Commodore.

To urge favorable action on a bill to sented letters showing that the bill has $21,600,000 of capital stock.

GAMES OF CHANCE IN BALTIMORE CLUB

Union League Steward Is Charged With Conducting a Gambling House—Runaway Student Played Poker
There and Lost His Money.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 19.—Members of Union League Club are wrought up over the arrest of Harry Pfeiffer, the steward, and John Russell, of the Ivanhoe Club, charged with maintaining gambling at the clubs. The cases were sent on to the grand jury.

Thomas McCluskey, son of Mrs. James McCluskey, of Philadelphia, ran away from St. John's College, Annapolis, where he was a student, came to this city, met Pfeiffer and Russell, and lost his money at poker at the clubs.

His mother learned he had been writing checks on banking institutions in which he had no money, and ordered his arrest. Then the gambling story came out.

It is declared by Union League members that if a conviction is obtained every social and political club in the city will be under the ban, as all, without exception, permit, uphold, and derive benefit from card playing by members.
